

WERNER

To Whom it may concern:

April 20, 2020

There is a strong need for truck drivers throughout the transportation industry. With company growth and the importance of consumer products needing delivered, it is essential that Werner continues to hire the next generation of professional truck driver from American Truck Training School.

Werner Enterprises has had a strong relationship with American Truck Training School for many years and their training program is one of the most respected in the industry, due to their focus on quality training. Werner Enterprises' professional drivers earn upwards of $50,000 to $75,000 a year depending on the specific driving position they choose. Werner offers dedicated, over the road, regional, local and team driving opportunities.

Because of Werner's diverse portfolio and driver centered culture, there are many advancement opportunities such as becoming a driver ambassador or driver leader, which averages over $75,000 a year.

Werner offers a full benefits package to include health and dental insurance, 401K, employee stock purchase plan and tuition reimbursement plan to name a few.

Werner Enterprises, Inc., (North American Industrial Classification System (NAICS) 48-4949) was founded in 1956 and is a premier transportation and logistics company, with coverage throughout North America, Asia, South America, Africa, Canada and Australia. Werner is among the five largest truckload carriers in the United States, with a diversified portfolio of transportation services that includes dedicated; medium-to-long-haul, regional and local van; expedited, temperature-controlled; and flatbed services. Werner's Value Added Services portfolio includes freight management, truck brokerage, intermodal, and international services. International services are provided through Werner's domestic and global subsidiary companies and include ocean, air and ground transportation; freight forwarding; and customs brokerage.

Respectfully,

Jim Morbach
Vice President - Field and Government Recruiting